

The rumor that Senator Anthony would resign is denied. He is reported to be in improved health.

ONE-HALF of the eighteen votes of Kansas are now claimed for Arthur. Senators Plumb and Ingalls have lately declared for him.

GEN. SHERMAN has prepared a letter to be read at the Chicago Convention, declaring that he will not become a candidate for the Presidency under any circumstances.

The enactment of a bankruptcy bill at the present session of Congress is not now considered probable. A motion fixing June 10 as a day for the consideration of the Lowell bill, has been defeated in the House.

The Louisville Mail line of steamers have passed into the hands of Capt. John Kyle, President of the Big Sandy and Pomeroy Packet Company, and his associates. Lewis Glenn is President of the new company, Capt. Wm. Honshell, Superintendent, and W. M. McCall, secretary.

Simmons' Medicated Well Water.
The following commendation of this excellent medicinal water is from a lady at Covington:

Editor Bulletin: I had in your paper a notice of Simmons' Medicated Well Water. I have been using it for several months and find it a good remedy for dyspepsia. I have been much benefited by its use. I will speak in this public manner for the benefit of others. The water is of a fine, pleasant taste. My residence is 420 Blackwell street, Covington, Ky. Mrs. A. A. BALLARD.

CONSIDERABLE expense has attended the preparation for the summer concert by Haucke's band and this has been arranged for by Mr. Geo. W. Fisher, except a small balance, which the public ought to make up immediately. The material for the stand, carpenter work, painting, etc., cost $56.00. Of this sum $44.25 has been subscribed and part of it paid. It is necessary to raise the remainder for the concert being. Of course the sum will be made up immediately.

The Lexington Transcript says: It is generally believed that the blows on the head which stunned Judge Reid, and which were still visible at the time of his death, injured the brain, and made it unable to bear the terrible strain that afterwards came on it. We are told all the night after the assault his family sat up and bathed his head, fearing concussion of the brain. The most cruel and severe blow was immediately back of the ear, and that is the spot where the pistol that took his life was placed.

The Farmer Still Thills the Soil.
A sudden change from poverty to wealth is apt to turn men's heads, but it has not proved to be so with Mr. Elbert S. Montgomery, of Mt. Olive, Ky., who last week received here, through the First National Bank, $15,000, as the holder of one-fifth of ticket No. 86,800, which drew the capital prize in the April drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery, costing him but $1. He is at home pursuing the even tenor of his way as a farmer, and shows a disposition to use wisely the money which fortune has bestowed upon him. When the public was inclined to doubt if he would receive the money he was offered, by responsible parties, the amount called for, less two per cent, but knowing the integrity of the Louisiana State Lottery management, he declined the offer and has received $15,000 in full. It was the first lottery ticket he ever held in his life, and he paid for it the sum of $1.—Maysville (Ky.) BULLETIN, April 29.

COUNTY POINTS.

PERN LEAF.
Last Saturday's BULLETIN calls attention to a call of thirteen magistrates asking Mr. L. W. Garbath to become a candidate for school commissioner of this county, claiming that had the election been held by the magistrates that these thirteen would have voted for him. The BULLETIN, no doubt, was furnished with this information and did not intend to do injustice to the magistrates or to Mr. Garbath. Two of the candidates for the office of school commissioner, standing in his claim of twenty-two and a peculiar fitness for the office, had the election taken place there would have been quite a settlement of his thirteen votes. The BULLETIN did not intend to say anything to prejudice the election of any candidate. It has no favorite in the race and desires only to see the candidate best qualified secure the position.—ED. BULLETIN.

Chief Justice Hargis Antagonizes Judge Riddell.

MR. STEWART, May 19.—Another hot time is expected here. Judge Thomas F. Hargis declares he will not vote for him, and will stump the district for Col. W. I. Holt, Republican, if he is nominated. Riddell's friends are indignant and claim that the county was settled between him and Hargis, and that Riddell's coming out after his withdrawal added but few votes to him than the Hargis party. This county has never been wrought up so politically as she now is.

CONGRESSIONAL SUMMARY.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—In the House Ellis (La.) from the Committee on Appropriations, asked leave to report a joint resolution appropriating $100,000 for the relief of food sufferers along the Mississippi River.

Consolidated (Pa.) objected, and the resolution was placed on the calendar. Hewitt (N. Y.) arose to make a personal explanation. He said that Saturday there appeared a letter purporting to have been written by Henry Oliver to Morrison, Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, criticizing the bill introduced by himself, and yesterday another letter appeared, signed by "Hewitt," addressed to Oliver. This letter was a fabrication, and he was wholly ignorant of its author until he opened his mail this morning and found a letter from the editor of the Pittsburg Globe, who said he would publish it as a burlesque on Oliver's letter to Morrison. O'Neil (Pa.) attempted to defend Oliver, but was dropped out by a demand for the regular order.

The committees were then called on for reports, and a considerable number were made and placed on the calendar.

The Senate amendments to the Indian Appropriation bill were non-concurred in. Ellis, Holman and Ryan were appointed conferees on the part of the House.

The Senate amendments to the shipping bill were non-concurred in. Consensus, in accordance with previous notice, called up the contested election case of English vs. Peelle, in the Seventh Indiana district. The report of the majority, recommending that the contestant be seated, was read.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—In the Senate a resolution directing the Committee on Public Lands to inquire into the charges against the New Orleans, Baton Rouge and Vicksburg Railroad was sent to that committee.

Mr. Slater offered a resolution which went into effect immediately. It was to form the Senate by what authority the Commissioners had been appointed to examine a report upon a section of the Northern Pacific, completed subsequent to the time the report was to be completed under the acts of Congress.

A bill extending the time for laying the Atlantic Cable to August 8, 1885, passed. On motion of Palmer, the bill providing for the erection of a public building in Detroit, Mich., was taken up and passed.

TOO EAGER.

He Wanted to Stand Before Sullivan, but Sprung His Ankles.

BAY CITY, Mich., May 21.—John L. Sullivan, Mike Gillespie and Mike Donovan gave an exhibition of soft glove sparring here last night. It had been announced that Sullivan would give $100 to any man who would stand before him for four rounds, and when the curtain rose the manager announced that he understood there was a man present named Burke who wanted to try his luck at the game. "If he is here," said the manager, "let him step in behind the scenes and we will make arrangements with him and hang up a thousand dollars that he can't stand for four rounds." Just then Burke, a great woodsman, dropped from the gallery to the stage, and amid loud applause, walked with a swagger behind the scenes. Soon after he stepped into the ring, and just ten minutes for his return. Nothing more was seen of him until the entertainment was half over, when, by permission of the manager he limped to the front of the stage and said: "Gentlemen, I want to say a word or two to you. When I came here I came with good intentions. I meant to meet Sullivan all right. I didn't see Sullivan, nor Steve Taylor, nor Leo McElroy, nor Dougan, but my name is Burke and I am well known in the Saginaw Valley. Of course, I would have been kicked out of time right, but would have kicked up some dust here for you, but I sprained my ankle and broke a vein in it, which jumped from me to the gallery. Now, my intentions were good when I came here and I just want to tell them and you won't think I am a coward, for I ain't." Burke is quite a notable wrestler and fighter.

Mysteriously Missing.

CINCINNATI, May 21.—The mysterious absence of Arabella Hazard from her home in this city since last Friday has caused her friends and family serious apprehensions. The following card is printed in today's Times-Star: "To the friends: On Friday, May 16, my niece, Arabella Hazard, mysteriously disappeared and no trace of her has yet been obtained. I will reward any reliable person or persons furnishing information which will lead to clear the mystery surrounding her disappearance and lead to her recovery. She has been an invalid for several years, and fears are entertained that her mind has become deranged. She was last seen at 1 o'clock a. m., Friday when she drew eighty dollars from S. S. Davis' Bank on Third street, in this city. She is thirty-three years of age, five feet one or two inches tall, very much emaciated from long sickness, and weighs only about ninety pounds. She has light brown hair and blue eyes. When she left home on Friday morning she wore a red flannel combi dress of medium size, lace kid shoes, a beaded hose, camel hair black polonaise, striped silk dress skirt, black straw hat trimmed with velvet and feathers, a gold ring, small gold ball-drop earrings, with breastpin to match. Her handkerchiefs are marked with her name in full, 'Arabella Hazard.' Information should be sent to Hon. S. S. Davis, the Times-Star office or to myself. 'Mt. Hope Road, Price Hill.'"

Marginal Boys.

GALESBURG, Ill., May 21.—Two eight-year-old school boys were arrested yesterday for stealing jewelry from the office of a physician. It transpires that there was an organized party of five of these youthful plunderers.

A burglar made a raid on Knox Seminary last night and took with him an entire outfit of clothing belonging to one of the young ladies.

Death of a Well Known Judge.
HARRISBURG, Pa., May 21.—Associate Judge Henry G. Moses, of Cumberland County, died suddenly this morning at his residence a few miles from this city. Few men were better known than he throughout the State.
